The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Google Accounts" with the URL <https://accounts.google.com/AcceptGAPlusTermsOfService?contin>. The page features the Google logo at the top. Below it, the heading "Welcome to your new account" is followed by a welcome message for the account yurika.lita@fkg.unpad.ac.id. The text explains that the account is compatible with most Google products but subject to administrator decisions. It also mentions access to Google Apps and Additional Services, with a note that domain administrators can access account information. A pink arrow points to the "I accept. Continue to my account." button, which is highlighted with a pink box. A "Cancel" button is also visible.

Welcome to your new account

Welcome to your new account: yurika.lita@fkg.unpad.ac.id. Your account is compatible with nearly all Google products, but your fkg.unpad.ac.id administrator may decide which products are enabled for your account. For tips about using your new account, visit our Help Center.

Google has made its services available to organizations using Google Apps. In addition to the core suite of messaging and collaboration applications, you may access many Google services ("Additional Services") using your yurika.lita@fkg.unpad.ac.id account. Your fkg.unpad.ac.id administrator determines which Additional Services you may access using your account. For tips about using your new account, visit the Google Help Center.

Please be aware that when you use Google services, your domain administrator will have access to your yurika.lita@fkg.unpad.ac.id account information, including your email. You can learn more here, or by consulting your domain administrator's privacy policy, if one exists. You can choose to maintain a separate account for your personal use of any Google services, including email. If you have multiple Google accounts, the username that appears at the upper right corner of most Google services will help you ensure that you're using the intended account.

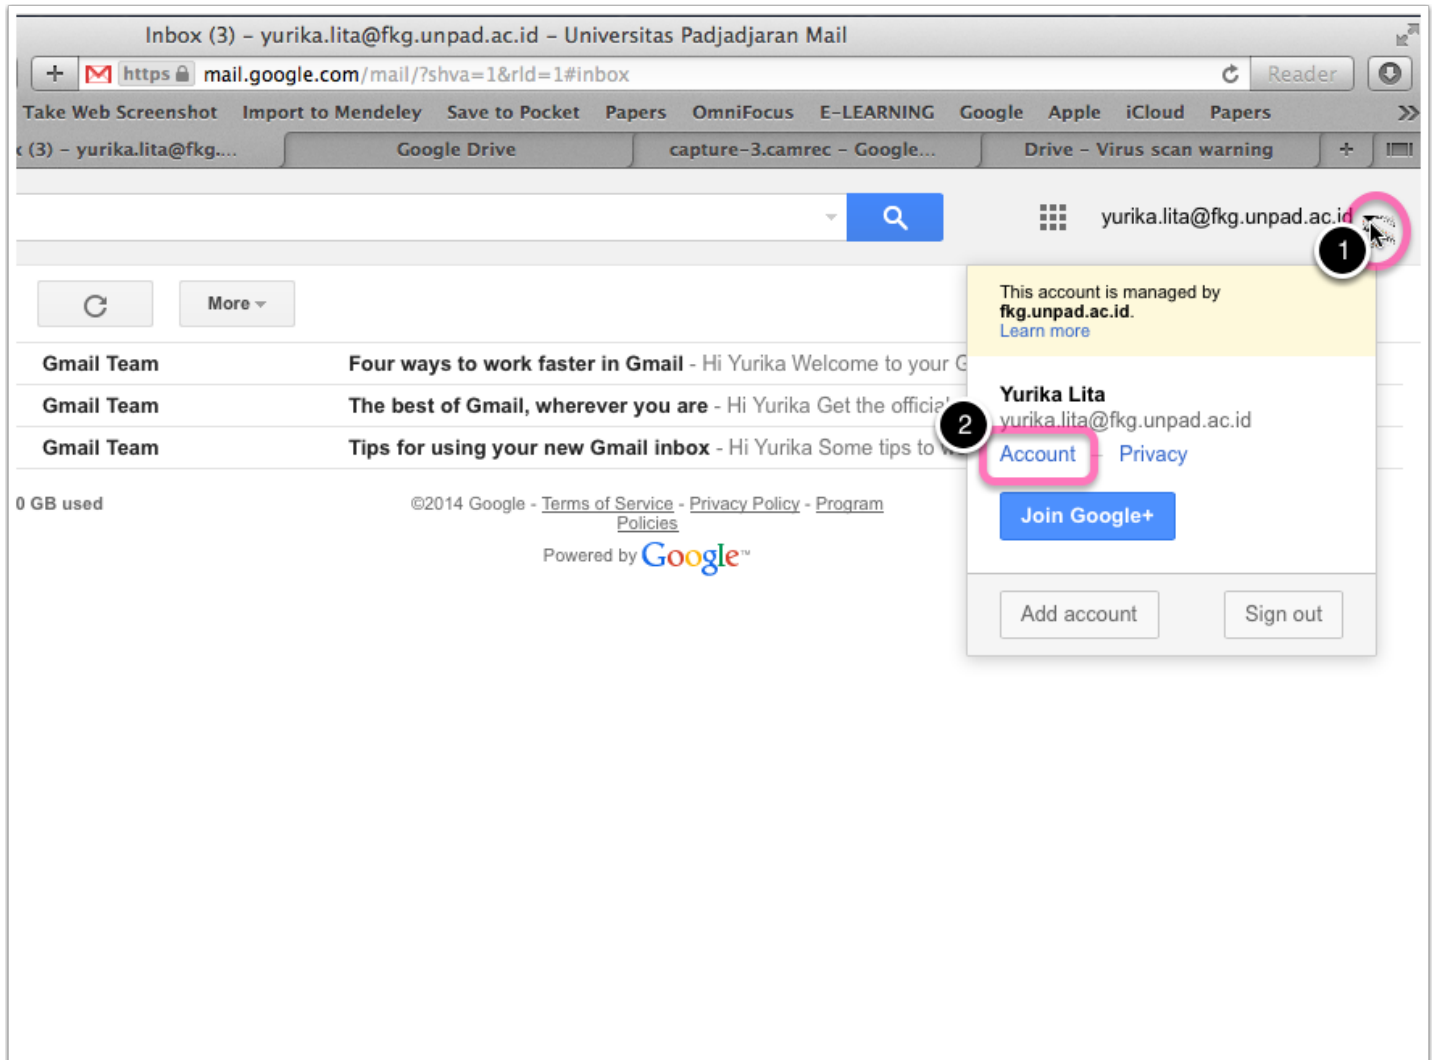

The Additional Services are provided by Google to you under these terms of service and privacy policy. Certain Additional Services may also have service-specific terms. If your domain administrator enables any of the Additional Services, Google will treat your use of any of the Additional Services as acceptance of the applicable service-specific terms.

Click "Accept" below to indicate that you understand the changes to your account and agree to the Google Terms of Service and the Google Privacy Policy for your use of Additional Services.
